A BAD WEEK OF THE REPUBLICAN CONGRESS.

A RESUME OF MONDAY'S PROCEEDINGS IN BOTH BRANCHES---PASSAGE OF THE SUPPLY CIVIL APPROPRIATION BILL BY THE SENATE---A QUORUM IN THE HOUSE---PROGRESS IN PASSING RAILROAD BILLS---A LOBBYIST; REVIEW OF THE WEEK'S WORK.

[Special Despatch to the Boston Daily Advertiser.]

WASHINGTON, June 18. Adjournment is postponed another day, the time as a final upon being six o'clock to-morrow afternoon. Whether the appropriation bill can be fixed by both houses of that hour depends, but it is not the time will be extended further, probably by hours instead of days. The Senate spent quite three hours last night debating the amendment proposed by Mr. Morrison for paying Ned Sears what, nominations, in addition the $75 which came to such as by the decision of the man paid by [illegible] Quartermaster. The debate was kept up with spirit nearly three hours, when the question was put and the amendment was rejected---yeas 21, nays 31. The House will without the action of [illegible] through with the bill in order to send it to the Senate before midnight [illegible] is probably impossible to adjourn before [illegible] [illegible] [illegible]

ST. NICHOLAS.

SCRIBNER'S ILLUSTRATED MAGAZINE FOR GIRLS AND BOYS.

The LONDON ACADEMY, of December 6th, 1873, says: "It is, moreover, to welcome the best juvenile periodical that we have yet seen."

In St. Nicholas for December, the Grand Christmas Number, we began a charming new

Serial Story by Miss Alcott

"Under the Lilacs," illustrated by Mary HALLOCK FOOTE, to complete during the year. This same Christmas number, of which one hundred thousand copies were printed, contained the opening chapters of a "HOSMER CHURCH" STORY for boys, "Tower-Mountain," by Professor THOMAS W. KNOX; a poem by Longfellow and BRYANT, a portrait of Miss Alcott, full of colored short stories, picture poems, etc., etc. It is the handsomest number of a child's magazine ever issued.

The NEW VOLUME BEGINS with MAY NUMBER. It has a list of contributors such as no other child's magazine or few publications of any sort, in the world can boast. These united the best writers in America to turn their attention to the task of giving delight and imparting culture to children. In the avalanche of trashy literature that threatens the children, some strong, healthy wholesome, and tasty antidote to the malarious influence of the day is needed. St. Nicholas has reached a higher platform, and commands the aid of better writers in art and letters, than any of its predecessors or contemporaries.

The subscription price is $3.00 a year, or 25 cents a number. Specimen numbers will be sent free. Subscriptions may begin with any number. All booksellers and newsdealers sell it. Agents wanted.
